Summary

Microsoft OneNote is a program that allows you to centralize virtually all types of information. Unlike paper-based systems, word processors, email, and productivity improvement programs, Microsoft OneNote provides a flexible way to gather and organize: text, images, scanned handwritten notes, and audio and video recordings in a digital notebook. Its interface, similar to other Microsoft Office applications, will make it easier for you to get started. The training courses have been specially designed to save you time and productivity without beating around the bush. Our best and most experienced trainers have spread all their valuable knowledge and experience to offer you the best practices, the best tips and tricks in short, precise and practical trainings.
