Project Portfolio Management

Duration: 2 days
Audience: Chargé de projet

Who is this training for?

Project managers : intermediate or advanced

Training objectives

- Be able to effectively plan and monitor a portfolio of projects
- Be able to effectively manage benefits
- Adopt a structured and integrated approach to portfolio management, aligned with the PMI
- Have a common vocabulary

Summary

This training, which is very focused on practice and interaction, allows students to understand and apply the best practices of portfolio management according to the Project Management Institute (PMI) approach. With the help of practical examples, participants work in teams, through the six (6) main stages of project portfolio management and benefit from the coaching.

Course outline

- Definitions
- Project identification, categorization and evaluation : project sheets, business cases
- Project prioritization and authorization: prioritization best practices, resource optimization, capacity management
- Portfolio monitoring: progress reports, dashboards, benefits management, accountability
- Implementation of good project portfolio management: project life cycle
- Project portfolio management tools
- Practical case study with exercises, workshops, simulations, role-plays

Approach and methodology

Copyright © 2026 AFI by Edgenda inc.

Participants will complete a series of exercises/workshops and benefit from personalized coaching from the trainer. In addition, the latter will provide all the necessary explanations in the form of lectures, exchanges and examples on real life cases.

Prerequisites

Project management (basic) or experience in project management or equivalent content

Recommendations

Have experience in project management.

Certifications

This course qualifies you for 14 PMI(r) Professional Development Units (PDUs).

Accreditations

Code for recognition of accreditation units: 50544AX8AY

Copyright © 2026 AFI by Edgenda inc.